Activities and procedures	Step 1 Read the Following: Wassily Kandinsky (1866-1944) was a Russian painter, a contemporary of Prokofiev. He was fascinated with the power that music had over its listeners and thought music was a superior form of art to visual art. He felt that music, since it disappeared once played and you couldn't "see" it, tapped into

	the inner emotions and imagination more fully than painting, drawing or sculpture. Kandinsky moved from representational art (that has a definite image or subject that you can recognize, like this painting) to abstract art (with fewer to no recognizable images, like this painting) as his art progressed. Step 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look at this website for a catalogue of his paintings. • Choose one painting to write about. Answering the following in your journal: This painting makes me feel... It reminds me of... Step 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using what art supplies you have, try to recreate your Kandinsky (see an example here)
