

Westchester Institute
for Human Development

EDUCATE. INNOVATE. ADVOCATE.

Diploma and Credential Options for Students with Disabilities
Friday, February 28, 2025
10:00 am to 11:30 am

Participants will learn about self-determination skills and its relation to students determining an individualized pathway to graduation from multiple options. Credit and diploma requirements, the appeal eligibility criteria for all students, and safety-net options for students with disabilities will be reviewed. Learn how earning a Career Development and Occupational Studies (CDOS) Commencement Credential is beneficial in a number of ways and understand the guidelines for the Skills and Achievement Commencement Credential which is awarded to students participating in the New York State Alternate Assessment (NYSAA) testing program.

The Community Support Network (CSN) at Westchester Institute for Human Development is the Hudson Valley's resource for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the professionals supporting them. The CSN operates Family and Community Engagement (FACE) Centers for the NYSED OSE Partnership. Our experts are knowledgeable about all of the disability systems serving individuals with disabilities across the lifespan and are available to help YOU.

We provide resources, training, direct services, and support and guidance to families, schools, agencies, and individuals themselves on disability related issues and topics.
