Message from Superintendent Soler

Dear Yonkers Public Schools Community,

This week has been full of celebrations, partnerships, and important discussions that continue to shape the bright future of our schools. As we strive to create opportunities for our students, I'm reminded of the strength of our community, rooted in tradition, and collaboration.

Superintendent Anibal Soler, Jr. attends Gorton High School's 100th Anniversary sitting next to Jamie Morales, Principal and Susan Gerry, Deputy Mayor City of Yonkers

I kicked off the week by joining the Yonkers Council of PTAs for a productive meeting with their executive board, where we strengthened our partnership to better support our students and families. I also attended a milestone celebration for Gorton High School's 100th Anniversary, a momentous occasion that reflects a century of educational excellence.

Continuing our focus on supporting our schools, I joined members of the Board of Education for the stated Facilities, Audit, Budget, and Finance Meeting, which ensures we are being fiscally responsible while providing the best resources for our students. We also held an Instructional Affairs Committee meeting where we discussed the Blue Ribbon Commission report on graduation measures. Additionally, we celebrated Fire Prevention Month with the Yonkers Fire Department at Las Hermanas Mirabal Community School, alongside Mayor Spano and Principal Vicuña, engaging our students in important fire safety tools.

As I am sure you see, a common theme for this week is building on partnerships as I met with Monroe University President, Marc Jerome. We discussed new pathways and opportunities for our students. I also had the opportunity to visit School 16, connecting with our amazing staff and students.

Finally, we capped off the week with a major milestone celebration at Kawasaki Rail Car's 5,000th car event, highlighting Yonkers as a leader in innovation and transportation. I also continued building on our strong relationship with Yonkers Partners in Education (YPIE), working with Executive Director Samuel Wallis to further strengthen our collaborative efforts.

As we move forward, I am excited about the possibilities and the continued growth of our district. Thank you for your ongoing support as we work together to give every student the opportunity to succeed.
