

Relax with a Landscape Workshop, Measure the Earth, and Explore HRM's New Acquisitions!

Hudson River Museum <enews@hrm.org>

Thu 1/14/2021 7:02 PM

To: LONG, TANYA <TLONG@YonkersPublicSchools.org>

HUDSON RIVER
MUSEUM

Paint a Landscape with HRM's Teaching Artist-

in-Residence Julia Santos Solomon!

Looking for a way to decompress? Join us this Sunday, January 17, 3:30pm, for a Landscapes in Miniature: A Virtual Painting Workshop, a virtual hands-on lesson led by Teaching Artist-in-Residence Julia Santos Solomon from her studio. Bring an image of your choice from a magazine, calendar, or the like, analyze its elements and composition, and then paint it in full color using art materials you have at home. You'll need brushes and watercolor or pastel and a 9 × 12" paper or acrylic paint and a 9 × 12" canvas board. Free; Registration required.

Support provided by Art Bridges

plus...

Friday–Sunday, 12:30, 2, and 3:30pm—Glenview Historic Home Tours. Experience what life was like in 1877, when the Trevor family moved into Glenview, the Museum's Gilded Age historic home on the National Register of Historic Places. Take a 30-minute, socially distanced tour of the six fully restored period rooms—the Great Hall, Parlor, Library, Sitting Room, Dining Room, and, of course, Yonkers' favorite dollhouse, Nybelwyck Hall. Maximum of 6 visitors per tour. Masks are required. Advance ticket purchase is strongly suggested. Purchase tickets.

Saturday, January 16, 1:30pm—Virtual Travel Through the Five Senses. Come experience the second in our series of family programs exploring artworks on view through the five senses! We'll explore a selection of the 300+ paintings in Cynthia Daignault's Light Atlas installation by using our sense of sound. Then we'll experiment with making a collective sound recording in response to the work of art! Light Atlas is currently on view in our exhibition Landscape Art & Virtual Travel. Free; registration required.

Support provided by Art Bridges

Family Activities—Take part in some hands-on learning with our family activities. Create a Postcard Landscape inspired by Landscape Art & Virtual Travel, and see what you can find on our Scavenger Hunt (not just for little kids!)

Attention fitness seekers! Empire State Trail—Did you know the HRM is a stop along the newly completed Empire State Trail? This 750-mile trail for hikers and bicyclists runs all the way from New York City's Battery Park to the Canadian border! Check out the map, get out and explore, and pay us a visit. Read about it in the Tribeca Citizen.

Explore the Earth with a Faraway Friend and Learn about the Andromeda Galaxy!

Take the opportunity to connect with a faraway friend for this week's Virtual Planetarium Show for Kids: How Big Is the Earth? on Saturday, January 16, 11:30am. We'll demonstrate a science project you can do with a friend, but only if that friend is at least 500 miles away. You'll need someone you can connect with through video chat, as well as a printout of our project guide, which will be provided during the show. Get the latest on the night sky and bring your questions! Recommended for ages 6–10. Tickets: $5; Members free; register once per household. Purchase tickets.

Thursday, January 14, 7pm—The Sky Tonight: Live-Streamed Planetarium Show. January is prime viewing time for the Andromeda Galaxy, the brilliant star cluster the Pleiades. Through an online planetarium simulator, we'll take a close look at the winter sky and cover the latest space news and exciting discoveries. Bring your questions! Recommended for ages 8+. Tickets: $5, Members free; register once per household. Purchase tickets.

For more fun virtual activities, check out #AwesomeAstronomy videos, along with our Science and Nature Projects, Art Projects, Storytimes, #HRMCollections and Exhibition highlights, and more on Museum From Home.

#HRMPlanetarium #AwesomeAstronomy

Image: Colamc (Wikimedia), 2017

New Installation of Works from HRM Collection, Featuring New Acquisitions and Old Favorites

See works from the HRM collection in a new light with a curated selection of modern and contemporary paintings, sculptures, and works on paper. Anchored by George Segal's sculpture Man Leaning Against a Wall of Doors (1968), this new installation also features five of the seven Riverside panels of Sylvia Sleigh's popular Invitation to a Voyage: The Hudson River at Fishkill.

Don't miss HRM's new acquisitions, which include Federico Uribe's Black Rabbit (Gold Shells) (above right) and Green and Blue Bird (2020), which create beauty out of bullet shells. Also on view are works by Ebony Bolt, Joseph Cornell, Red Grooms, Alice Neel (above left), Rigoberto Torres, Andy Warhol, and Robert Zakanitch.

The Museum is open Thursday- Sunday, 12-5pm.
Advance reservations are strongly encouraged.
Purchase tickets.

Left: Alice Neel (American, 1900–1984). The Accountant (Marvin), 1981.
Color lithograph. Gift of Richard Haas, 1997. Art © The Estate of Alice Neel. (97.9.4).. Right: Federico Uribe (Colombian, born 1962). *Black Rabbit
(Gold Teeth)*, 2020. Bullet shells. Gift of Jan and Warren Adelson, 2020
(2020.13.1). Image credit line: © Federico Uribe.

©2020 Hudson River Museum, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

511 Warburton Ave Yonkers, NY 10701

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

View this email in your browser